

Frankie Pickle Goes on Holidays.

The Piccolini family went on holidays to the amazon last year. Frankie, his mother, his father, his two sisters and his dog were excited. They went camping. Firstly, Dad and Mum set up the tent. The children removed their belongings from the car. Argyle the dog helped the children.

Next Dad said, "I am hungry." Frankie Pickle and Argyle set up a fire to cook some food. As Argyle was putting a stick into the fire he burned his paw. Ouch! He exclaimed.

Dad immediately dashed to get some water. Dad warmed up the water and passed it to Mum. Without any delay Mum put the warm water on Argyle's paw. Next she wrapped a bandage around his sore paw. They were all happy again.
