

My Adventure with Batman

Yesterday an amazing thing happened. I was playing Batman on my ps4 when suddenly, I got sucked into the telly. First I thought I was dreaming. I closed my eyes for a second, I opened them and I was being sucked into the telly. I wasn't in my house any more, I was in Gotham City.

I started walking around slowly. I was feeling a bit nervous. Suddenly Joker's minions began to attack me. Batman jumped out of mid-air and got the minions. I was very happy to see Batman.

"Come with me, little boy" said Batman.

"Where are we going?" I asked in a frightened voice.

"We're going to my bat cave," he replied. He told me to get into his Bat Mobile and not to be scared.

I was so excited. I was actually getting into the Bat Mobile. Before this, I had only seen it on my TV screen.

We met robin in the cave and we came up with a plan to get Joker. We drove around in the bat mobile and waited for Joker to attack us. When he did, we had a big fight and in the end Batman grabbed Joker and put him into the bat mobile.

"All the evil things you do are wrong," said Batman, "Cop yourself on!"

"If you're good, everyone will be happy, even you."

In the end, Joker agreed to help people. We all went for ice-cream to celebrate.

The End
