

Teidí Went For A Walk.

The winter performance was over. All the children and adults were gone home. "I am bored," said Teidí beag buí and Teidí beag gorm together. "Let's go to the park," suggested Teidí beag gorm. "May we join you?" asked Spot and Marshmallow. "Yes, you may join us," replied Teidí beag buí.

Full of excitement, they all set off for the park. Spot and Marshmallow jumped through the gate, while Teidí gorm and Teidí buí went under it. They walked directly to Doorly Park.

Luckily, Spot had brought a football with him. They all played happily. Next Teidí gorm tripped over Spot. Teidí gorm broke his arm. Unfortunately, he had to sit out. Unfortunately, he had to go to the hospital. The doctor put a cast on his arm.

Teidí was unable to play football for six weeks. After that Teidí gorm and all his friends went back to play in the park. They played football again. They had great fun.

Read by Jamie Brady.