Los Santos

One stormy Saturday night, I was sleeping in Paddy's house and we were playing a game on his Play Station. It was called gta5. After a while, I went down to the kitchen for a drink. When I came back to the room, Paddy had disappeared! I put my hand into Paddy's TV and we were in Los Santos. We had been taken into the game.

I couldn't believe it. In seconds, we heard shooting so we took cover and then Franklin came over and gave us two shotguns. So we took the shotguns and shot the bad guys and killed them. It felt so strange to be actually killing people. It wasn't a game anymore.

Franklin brought us to his house. .

He said, "I need to make a call."

So he made the call and then he came back into the living room.

"Let's go on mission," he suggested.

So we went on a mission. We had no idea where he was taking us but we had to go with him. We soon arrived at Michael Asanta's house. Michael was sitting on the couch. We could see him through the window. Suddenly, Trevor came in and put a gun to Paddy's head. I was scared but I think Paddy was terrified. Franklin threw Trevor off him so we told Franklin to get some sticky bombs to bomb up Trevor's jeep.

Paddy drove through the gate. Franklin brought us to his house. We were happy to be away from Trevor. As we sat in his sitting room, Franklin asked a question:

"Who wants a house?"

"I do!" I answered straight away.

I think he wanted us to join his gang but I didn't mind, I was delighted to get a new house.

"What about Paddy?" I asked.

"Do you want a house too?" asked Franklin.

"Ya, OK," said Paddy. We couldn't believe that we were getting our own houses.

Franklin brought us to the house that I was going to get. It was amazing. It had a big yard and there was a farm with the house. There was a massive garage at the side of the house. I was delighted.

He then took us to see Paddy's house. It was lovely too and it was near my house.

Franklin told us that we were going on a real mission. I told Paddy to contact Trevor and tell him to meet over at Paddy's house. Paddy would have to make friends with him so that he would get some getaway vehicles and a lorry for us. Franklin told us all to meet at Paddy's house and then he would tell us what to do.

Thirty minutes later, we all met over at Paddy's house. The mission was about to start. We were nervous but excited at the same time. It was great fun playing the PS but now, we were the ones going on the mission. We headed for Simeon's garage and I drove the van through the window. The others parked their vehicles outside. Paddy ran in and put a bag over Simeon's head. I got a rope in Paddy's boot and I tied Simeon to a chair. We took his cars. He had five Ferraris. Trevor, Paddy, Franklin, Michael Asanta and I took one each. We drove them onto the lorry. I drove the lorry. First, I drove to my house and I put one of the cars into the garage. From there, we went to Paddy's house and dropped a car off there. The others got their cars. The mission was a success.

The next day, Paddy and I headed over to Trevor's house. While we were driving, Paddy saw a panther. He got out of the car and started running. He wasn't looking where he was going because he was looking at the panther. He ran into a wall but the wall wasn't hard. He was being sucked into the wall.

"Hurry up!" Paddy yelled. "This is the way home."

I ran towards the wall and we were both sucked into it.

At that moment, Scott was playing on the play station and he saw me and Paddy in the TV. He got a fright and he ran into the other room to tell his mum and dad what he had seen. By the time his mum and dad got into the room with the TV, Paddy and I were sitting on the bed.

Scott was confused.

"You must have been dreaming," we told him. But Scott knew that he wasn't dreaming. We didn't tell what had really happened, it was our secret. We never played GTA5 again because next time, we might not get out alive!
